PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

We are three months into the New Year and the commitments made in December 2024. So, how are you doing?

Personal growth, Personal commitment is not easy. Recently, speaking to a youth, we chatted about anger management, specifically on creating anger logs. This student stops me midway through the conversation to say, "I know this stuff, it has been taught to me during counseling appointments." I simply asked and what have you done with it? His reply.. Nothing.

Wow, we hold the keys to growth but often, like this young person, we have all the tools but simply do not use them.

Growth takes commitment, and time.

JON BATCH

February brought some new additions to the ministry. I am one of the chaplains at the Dearborn County Juvenile Detention Center (JDC). This offers a great opportunity to minister to students, staff, and parents who find themselves at the JDC. God truly is doing a mighty work within the walls there.

I am also working on a partnership with the company Seedbed, a conservative Christian Publishing Company. I will be writing content for Youth Ministries and individuals (teenagers) to use in growing their faith and community. It is an exciting partnership.

God continues to work in and through this amazing ministry we call 2Engage.
